

Nov 21 2009 UUSJ and ADORE joint program blog

Over 50 folks came to the half day program.

David Slavin, plenary speaker talked about Inequality, White Privilege and Social Control in the US applied to 4 topics: climate crises, health reform, sundown towns and interracial solidarity as a spiritual practice. See a video <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PDk8Mc8NKQw> A workshop followed his plenary session.

There were 3 other workshops. Go to http://uusj.net/wp/?page_id=679 to see the results of a brainstorming session for additional ways to determine whether your congregation is a public or private church.

A workshop on the repeal of Don't Ask, Don't Tell included a copy of the Action of Immediate Witness from the 2007 General Assembly.

A workshop on the Partners for Accompaniers in Guatemala. Attendees learned how to host house parties to finance the accompaniers.

<http://www.uua.org/socialjustice/socialjustice/statements/31606.shtml>

You are welcome to blog about your learnings from the session or your reaction to what was shared <http://uusj-bwnv.blogspot.com>