

National Justice-Building Conference Calls: REFUGEE JUSTICE

Want to learn how you or your congregation can help Syrian refugees?

Concerned about Central American mothers and children being traumatized by U.S. family detention facilities?

Join these conference calls to learn what you can do!
Call 888-585-9008 and use conference room #609-185-545.

Central American Mothers and Children in Detention Thursday, November 19, 3:00–4:00 p.m. (EST)

Hear highlights of UUSC's new mental health report documenting the abysmal care women and children receive while in detention. Find out how you can help these asylum seekers as they create new lives for themselves here in the United States. You will receive the latest advocacy updates and learn about vital needs from experienced local service providers.

Guest speakers:

- Rachel Freed, Vice President and Chief Program Officer, UUSC
- Amber Moulton, Researcher, UUSC
- Jonathan Ryan, Executive Director, Refugee and Immigrant Center for Education and Legal Services (RAICES)
