

Unitarian Universalists for Social Justice in the National Capital Region

Help Make the UU Voice Heard on Capitol Hill! UUSJ Advocacy Corps - Q&A Information Sessions

After the Women's March on Washington, now what do we do? It is a critical time for the UU liberal religious voice to be heard. Each day we are seeing rollbacks and attacks by the new Administration and Congress on the important progress that our country has made and that is core to our UU values.

There is no other UU group going to Capitol Hill. It's up to us UUs in the national capital region to Step up! Show up! and Speak up! Our values are at risk.

We are mobilizing and need UUs willing to make regular visits to Members of Congress and their staff on UUSJ priority issues of immigration, the environment and climate change, and escalating income inequality, among other UU issues that protect human rights, our planet and all living beings, and our democracy.

Register for a Q&A information session to learn more about the UUSJ Advocacy Corps and supportive advocacy engagement opportunities:

UUSJ Advocacy Corps Q&A Video Conference Meeting on:

Saturday, January 28, 3:00-4:00pm

Tuesday, January 31, 7:00-8:00pm

The first of monthly Capitol Hill visits will be on Valentine's Day February 14, 9:30am-2:00pm with an orientation followed by Hill visits.

To register, go the UUSJ website www.uusj.org. Questions - call Lavona at 703-524-4860. Once you sign up, you will receive a message with instructions on how to join the video conference meeting or to call in.