REVOLUTIONARY LOVE

Toward a More Perfect Union

April 24–26, 2020 in Washington DC

Middle Collegiate Church convenes a cadre of partners, movement builders, artists, influencers, and activists at our 14th Annual National Gathering.

We the people, in order to form a more perfect union, declare a national state of emergency.

- In order to establish a justice system that works for everyone;
- In order to ensure tranquility and peace that means not just the absence violence and hate speech but also the presence of wholeness and wellness;
- In order to promote the general welfare—a living wage for all workers, equal pay for women, and a safety net for our seniors and the vulnerable;
- In order to secure the blessings of liberty for Black and Brown people, indigenous people, our LGBTQIA+ family, immigrants, and for our posterity;
- In order to preserve the civil and human rights for all who live on this stolen land and in order to care for our planet—

We must take back our democracy, and we must do it right now.

Middle Collegiate Church and The Middle Project, an institute that trains leaders for a just society, offer the Revolutionary Love Conference each April for leaders working toward the Reign of God on Earth. Past conferences have addressed issues such as the power of story to train leaders, the use of artistic worship to create multiracial communities, training leaders to manage change and conflict, analyzing the dynamics of race, gender, class and power, and the connections between faith, justice, and the economy.
