Frequently Asked Questions & Answers

Write Here! Write Now! Congregational Partner Program

Where can I learn more about the UUSJ's Write Here! Write Now! (WHWN) letter-writing campaign to members of Congress?

First, download the UUSJ Write Here! Write Now! Letter-writing toolkit. You'll find step-by-step instructions and tips for organizing a letter-writing event.

Is there a financial cost to be a partner?

No. At this time the program is at no cost. A goodwill offering is appreciated.

What will I receive as a partner congregation?

A notice with details about the Capitol Hill Advocacy Day and WHWN topic with a sample announcement to adapt for promotion; a WHWN handout to put out on your table with key points and a sample letter; UUSJ's monthly eNewsletter.

What is expected of my congregation? How can we become a WHWN partner?

Send letters in a timely manner. If you are ready to partner and participate regularly in WHWN campaigns—an expectation for partnering—contact the Advocacy Corps program organizer advocacy@uusj.org.
