Tell Your Senators to Mind Our Civil Liberties and First Amendment Rights

The Nonprofit Killer Bill would give unchecked power to revoke tax-exempt status from universities, charities, mosques, and advocacy groups, all without evidence.

This is not a partisan issue. It's a First Amendment emergency.

Tell Your Senators to Mind Our Civil Liberties and First Amendment Rights

This is a First Amendment emergency, not a partisan issue. Tell the Senate: Keep the Nonprofit Killer Bill OUT of the final package.

This proposed “Nonprofit Killer Bill” must be rejected because:

- It grants the Treasury Secretary broad discretionary power to revoke tax-exempt status based on subjective and politically motivated criteria.
- It suppresses protected speech, targeting organizations advocating for Palestinian rights and other social justice causes.
- It violates due process by allowing the use of classified evidence without giving nonprofits the chance to challenge it.
- It is unnecessary, existing U.S. laws already prohibit terrorism financing without infringing on civil liberties.

Unitarian Universalists for Social Justice (UUSJ) is focused on raising the values of Unitarian Universalism in the halls of power in the United States.

UUSJ holds itself accountable to the principles of the UU faith. This requires us to attend not only to UU interests and priorities, but also to the interests and priorities of people and communities directly affected by the injustices our faith calls us to redress.
