Tell Congress, both House and Senate:
Vote No on Reconciliation Package

Since February, both chambers of Congress have been negotiating budget proposals that will advance a cruel calculus: to extend tax cuts for the wealthy and billionaire few, to ramp-up a misguided and counterproductive immigration agenda, they are taking healthcare and food assistance – basic needs spending – away from everyday, average Americans.

From the many to fund the few. Cutting the caring programs to bulk up the draconian programs.

It's been a bad proposal for America, it remains a bad deal for America: for our communities and our pocketbooks, for our neighbors both the un-documented, and legally allowed, as well as our kith and kin of humble means.
